[L.S.] OLIVER MOWAT.

CANADA.

PROVINCE OF ONTARIO.

VICTORIA, by the grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c., &c., &c.

To all to whom these presents shall come—GREETING.

PROCLAMATION.

ARTHUR S. HARDY, } WHEREAS in and by a certain Act of the Attorney-General. } Legislature of Our Province of Ontario passed in the Session thereof, held in the sixtieth year of Our Reign, and entitled "An Act to provide for the Consolidation of the Statutes of Ontario," after reciting that certain Commissioners for the purpose of consolidating the Public Statutes of this Province, had been appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province in Council, it was amongst other things in effect enacted,

That so soon as the said Commissioners should report, in writing signed by a majority of them, and by the Chairman, the completion of the said consolidation, including therein such Acts and parts of Acts passed during the said Session as Our Lieutenant-Governor might deem it advisable to be included, Our Lieutenant-Governor might cause a printed Roll thereof attested under his signature and countersigned by the Provincial Secretary to be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly ;

That there should be appended to the said Roll a schedule similar in form to Schedule A appended to The Revised Statutes of 1887, showing the Acts and parts of Acts which had been embodied in the said Roll and showing in the third column thereof the extent to which the Acts and parts of Acts in the said Schedule should from the time of the coming into force of the Revised Statutes contained in the said Roll be repealed ; and that the Commissioners might include in the said Schedule all Acts and parts of Acts which, though not expressly repealed, had been superseded by the Acts so consolidated, or were inconsistent therewith, and all parts of such Acts which were for a temporary purpose, the force of which had been spent ;

That the said Commissioners in consolidating the said Statutes might make such alterations in their language as might be requisite in order to preserve a uniform mode of expression, and might make such minor amendments as were necessary to bring out more clearly what they deemed to be the intention of the Legislature, or to correct clerical or typographical errors ; and might also direct that any of the enacting clauses in the said Statutes should be printed in bourgeois type, and that any of the sections which in The Revised Statutes of 1887 are in bourgeois type should be printed among the enacting clauses, and

That Our said Lieutenant-Governor in Council after the deposit as aforesaid of the said Roll might by proclamation declare the day from and after which the same should come into force and have effect as law by the designation of "The Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1897" ; and that on and from such day the same should accordingly come into force and effect by the said designation to all intents as though the same were expressly embodied in and enacted by the said Act to come into force and have effect on and from such day, and that on and from the same day all the enactments in the several Acts and parts of Acts in the said Schedule mentioned should so far as they relate to this Province stand and be repealed to the extent mentioned in the third column of the said Schedule save only as in the said Act thereafter is provided ;

AND WHEREAS Our said Lieutenant-Governor selected such Acts and parts of Acts passed during the said Session of the said Legislature of Our said Province, now last past, as he deemed it advisable to be included in the said consolidation and the same have been incorporated therein ;

AND WHEREAS so soon as the said Commissioners reported in writing, signed by a majority of them and by the Chairman, the completion of the said consolidation and of the said Schedule, Our said Lieutenant-Governor caused a correct printed Roll thereof, attested under his signature and countersigned by the Provincial Secretary with a correct copy of the said Schedule appended thereto, to be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly ;

AND WHEREAS the provisions contained in the first three sections of the said Act have been duly carried into effect;

AND WHEREAS Our said Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of Our said Province has named the thirty-first day of December, 1897, as the day on, from and after which the said Consolidation as shewn in the said Roll shall come into force and have effect as law by the designation of " The Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1897 " ;

NOW KNOW YE, that by and with the advice of Our Executive Council of Our said Province of Ontario, WE DO by this Our Royal Proclamation, DECLARE that on, from and after the said THIRTY-FIRST day of the month of DECEMBER 1897, the said Roll attested under the signature of Our said Lieutenant-Governor of Our Province of Ontario, countersigned by the Provincial Secretary, and deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly of the said Province as aforesaid, shall come into force and have effect as law by the designation of " THE REVISED STATUTES OF ONTARIO, 1897," to all intents as though the same were expressly embodied in and enacted by the said Act.

When forfeiture may be remitted.

The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may remit the forfeiture in any case in which the failure to give the security or to perfect or transmit the instruments required by this Act, within the periods hereinbefore limited respectively in that behalf, has not arisen from the wilful neglect of the Sheriff, and if it appears to the Lieutenant-Governor that such respective periods are in any case insufficient in consequence of accident, casualty, loss of papers in the transmission thereof, illness or other particular circumstance, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may allow such further period, not in any case exceeding two months, for perfecting and transmitting such securities, as to him may appear reasonable and proper. R. S. O. 1887, c. 16, s. 14.

When securities may be approved, although not perfected in time.

23. The Lieutenant-Governor may approve of any security or securities, although the same may not have been perfected and transmitted respectively within the time limited by this Act, and in such case the office or commission of the Sheriff shall not be deemed to have been avoided by such default, but to have remained in full force and effect; and the securities, when approved of as aforesaid, shall be held and construed to be valid and effectual, in the same manner and to the same extent as if they had been perfected and approved respectively within the time limited by this Act. (4) Provided that the duty chargeable upon any legacy given by way of annuity, whether for life or otherwise, shall be paid by four equal payments, the first of which payments of duty shall be made before or on completing payment of the first year's annuity, and the three others of such payments of duty shall be made in like manner successively, before or on completing the respective payments of the three succeeding years' annuity respectively. In case the annuitant dies before the expiration of the said four years only payment of instalments which fall due before his death shall be required.

When duties on annuities to be paid.

(5) The duty is to be paid on the cash value of all estates, interests, annuities and life estates, or terms of years mentioned in section 8 of this Act, in the same manner as on the other assets of the estate; but the Judge may grant further time for payment thereof, or of a part thereof, where it appears to the Judge that having reference to the condition of the estate, the available means of making such payment, and the interest of others, that payment within the time prescribed by this Act would be unreasonable or unjust; in such cases, as between executors or administrators of the estate and the person who is to become entitled to the possession or enjoyment at a future period only, the duty payable and paid by the executors or administrators in respect of such future estate or interest shall be a charge on such future estate or interest, and shall be paid to them by the person aforesaid with interest at the time the estate or interest comes into actual possession; but the executors or administrators shall be entitled to receive the amount, or any part thereof, at an earlier date if the person to pay desires to pay the same at an earlier date. 59 V. c. 5, s. 6.

Further time may be granted.

12.—(1) The duties imposed by this Act, unless otherwise herein provided for, shall be due and payable at the death of the deceased, or within eighteen months thereafter, and if the same are paid within eighteen months no interest shall be charged or collected thereon, but if not so paid interest at the rate of six per centum per annum from the death of the deceased shall be charged and collected, and such duties together with the interest thereon shall be and remain a lien upon the property in respect to which they are payable until the same is paid. 55 V. c. 6, s. 12.

Duties to be payable within 18 months from death of owner.

(Certificate not a discharge in case of fraud, etc.

Except as to bona fide purchaser.

(4) Provided, however, that a certificate purporting to be a discharge of the whole succession duty payable in respect of any property included in the certificate shall exonerate from the duty a bona fide purchaser for valuable consideration without notice, notwithstanding any such fraud or failure. 59 V. c. 5, s. 9.

Extension of time for payment of duty.

13. The Surrogate Judge may make an order upon the application of any person liable for the payment of said duty, extending the time fixed by law for payment thereof where it appears to such Judge that payment within the time prescribed by this Act is impossible owing to some cause over which the person liable has no control. 55 V. c. 6, s. 13.

Administrators, etc., to deduct duty before delivering property.

14. 17. Where any debts shall be proven against the estate of a deceased person, after the payment of legacies or distribution of property from which the duty has been deducted, or upon which it has been paid, and a refund is made by the legatee, devisee, heir or next of kin, a proportion of the duty so paid shall be repaid to him by the executor, administrator or trustee, if such duty has not been paid to the Treasurer of the Province, or by the Treasurer if it has been so paid. 55 V. c. 6, s. 17.

The service of such order and the time, manner and proof thereof, and fees therefor, and the hearing and determining thereon, and the enforcement of the judgment of the Court thereon shall be according to the practice in or upon the enforcement of a judgment of the High Court. 55 V. c. 6, s. 18.

Commission to examine witnesses not in Ontario.

14. The Commissioners may cause such interrogatories or cross-interrogatories as they deem requisite to be served upon and answered by any claimant, party or witness, or any witness whose depositions may be produced in evidence before them, and may cause commissions to be issued for the examination of any witness not resident in Ontario, and for requiring such witness to produce such books, papers or other documents as he may have in his possession, and may at their discretion delay the proceedings in the case until the evidence and answers have been adduced and given. R. S. O. 1887, c. 27, s. 14.

15. If a claimant, party or person duly summoned to give evidence, or to produce any book, paper or document, or to answer any interrogatories or cross-interrogatories before the Commissioners, or before any person commissioned by them to receive the same within this Province, wilfully neglects to appear at the time and place appointed in the summons, or appearing, refuses to answer any lawful question, or to produce any document in his possession, he shall forfeit the sum of $100 to the party at whose instance he has been so summoned or required to answer or to produce such document; and if the claimant or any party interested in the case makes default in answering any interrogatory or cross-interrogatory which he may be duly required to answer, the interrogatory or cross-interrogatory shall be taken pro confesso as if his answer had been such as would be most adverse to his own claims or interest. R. S. O. 1887, c. 27, s. 15.

Penalty for neglecting to appear or to answer.

Interrogatory not answered by a party to be taken pro confesso.

16. The Commissioners shall not receive or proceed upon any claim until the party by whom, or on whose behalf the same is made (or if the party consist of more than one person, then until some one of such persons), has made and produces before the Commissioners an affidavit or affirmation in writing signed by him, that the claim is just and well founded to the best of his knowledge and belief, and that he is not aware of any adverse claim, or if he is aware of any adverse claim, that he has at least one month before the making of the affidavit or affirmation caused to be served on the party having or supposed to have the adverse claim, notice in writing of his claim and of his intention to bring the same before the Commissioners, and of the time when it is intended to be so brought, and a copy of the notice shall be annexed to the affidavit or affirmation. R. S. O. 1887, c. 27, s. 16.

Affidavit to be made by claimant before his claim shall be received.

17. The Commissioners shall not proceed upon any claim as aforesaid, unless a notice specifying the claim and the name or names of the party claiming, together with the number of the lot of which the lands claimed consist or form part, and of the concession and the name of the township in which the same lies, has been put up in some conspicuous place in the office of the Clerk of the Peace of the County in which the lands are situate, during at least thirty days before the claim comes to be heard before the Commissioners, nor unless a certificate to that effect from the Clerk of the Peace is produced to the Commissioners. R. S. O. 1887, c. 27, s. 17.

Certain public notice to be given before a claim is received.

18. The Clerk of the Peace of every county shall, once in every three months, make a list of the claims so put up, in his office, specifying therein the particulars of the claims in the manner in which they are hereinbefore required to be specified in the notice to be put up, and shall affix the list in some conspicuous part of the court house, or place in which the Courts of General Sessions are held for the county, and shall cause the list to be publicly read and proclaimed at each session by the crier in open Court, immediately after the delivery of the charge to the Grand Jury; and for each certificate the Clerk of the Peace may demand and receive the sum of fifty cents, and no more. R. S. O. 1887, c. 27, s. 18.

Extension of time.

19. The Commissioners may defer, delay, or adjourn the proceedings on any claim brought before them, and may give such further or enlarged time for the production of evidence, or for any other purpose relative to such claim, and for the decision thereon, as they may deem expedient for the attainment of the ends of justice. R. S. O. 1887, c. 27, s. 19.

Commissioners to report to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

20. After the Commissioners have fully examined any claim, they may either reject or allow the same, as in their judgment the justice and equity of the case requires, without regard to legal forms or to the strict letter of the law or legal rules of evidence, and shall report their decision to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and the report shall be final and conclusive (except in the case hereinafter mentioned), and the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall direct Her Majesty's letters patent under the Great Seal of the Province to issue, for granting the lands in question to the party who has been determined by the decision of the Commissioners to be entitled to the same as representing the original nominee of the Crown. R. S. O. 1887, c. 27, s. 20.

Patent to issue on report.

Effect of the patent with regard to charges, or incumbrances.

21. The letters patent shall have the same and no other effect or operation with regard to any charge, incumbrance, lien, matter or thing, upon or affecting the lands so granted, as letters patent issuing for the same in favour of the original nominee of the Crown would have had, save only as establishing the claim of the party in whose favour they may be granted to the lands to which they relate, as the heir, devisee or assignee of or as otherwise representing the original nominee. R. S. O. 1887, c. 27, s. 21.

Report and patent not to affect any claim to any lands but those mentioned therein.

22. Neither the decision of the Commissioners on any claim nor the issuing of the letters patent on such decision, shall extend to or in any way affect any claim of the said party, or of any other party, to any lands other than those to which such decision expressly relates, and which are mentioned and described in the report and letters patent, but such claim to other lands shall continue and remain as if such decision and report had not been made. R. S. O. 1887, c. 27, s. 22.

Patent not to issue for one month after the report is received.

23. No letters patent shall issue on any decision and report of the Commissioners until after the expiration of one month from the time the report has been transmitted to and marked as received by the Clerk of the Executive Council. R. S. O. 1887, c. 27, s. 23.

24. If, before the expiration of such month, a quorum of the Commissioners, from any representation made to them, find reason to believe that the decision and report were obtained by surprise or erroneously made in any respect, and that justice requires that the issuing of the letters patent should be stayed, then such quorum of the Commissioners, although not then the regular period of their sitting, may report accordingly to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and the issuing of the letters patent shall be thereupon stayed until the Commissioners again report upon the case, and the Commissioners may rehear the case or let in any new claim and receive or insist upon any new evidence as to them may appear expedient to enable them to do justice in the case, and may thereafter decide and report thereon as if no prior decision and report had been made, and with like effect. R. S. O. 1887, c. 27, s. 24.

Patent may be stayed if the report has been obtained by surprise, etc.

Commissioners may rehear the case.

25. If, under the circumstances of such case, it appears to the Commissioners fair and right so to do, they may allow to the party in whose favour the first decision and report were made, such costs against the party at whose instance the case has been again taken into consideration as they may deem just and reasonable; or they may, in case of fraud or wilful wrong in the conduct of such party, award costs in like manner against him to the party in whose favour the subsequent decision and report are made. R. S. O. 1887, c. 27, s. 25.

Costs occasioned by rehearing to be in the discretion of the Commissioners.

26. In case land for which no patent has issued is at any time described as granted in any schedule furnished by the Commissioner of Crown Lands to the Treasurer of any County in Ontario, under the provisions of any law concerning the collection of local taxes or assessments, and is afterwards sold for arrears of such local taxes or assessments, and in case the period allowed by law for the redemption of the lands has expired, the purchaser, or the heir, devisee or assignee of the purchaser may claim the same before the Commissioners aforesaid, and the purchaser shall thereupon, for all the purposes of this Act, be considered as an assignee of the original nominee of the Crown, and his claim shall be acted on and dealt with accordingly. R. S. O. 1887, c. 27, s. 26.

Purchasers of unpatented lands sold for taxes may claim patent before the Commissioners.

27. In all cases under this Act in which a witness duly appears to give evidence before the Commissioners, or before any person appointed by them to examine or to receive the testimony or deposition of the witness, the Commissioners may order and direct the party at whose instance the witness has been summoned, or his testimony or depositions have been taken, to allow to the witness for his loss of time and expenses such sum as the Commissioners may deem equitable, which order the party shall obey, or in default, the sum shall be recoverable from him by action in any Court having jurisdiction in civil cases to a like amount, due regard being had to the limits of the local jurisdiction of such Court. R. S. O. 1887, c. 27, s. 28.

Costs allowed to witness.

Effect of mortgages, etc., granted before the issue of the letters patent.

Rev. Stat.
c. 109.

28. In case the original nominee of the Crown, or any person through whom any party obtaining letters patent for lands under this Act derived his claim, had before the allowance of the claim, and before the issue of the letters patent, granted any mortgage, incumbrance or lien on the lands, by any instrument by which the same would have been validly granted if the letters patent had issued in favour of the grantor before the date of the instrument, the same may, except as provided in section 76 of The Unorganized Territory Act, be registered in the office of the Registrar for the Registry Division in which the lands lie, subject to the same conditions, and with the same effect and no other, and shall have the same force and effect, and no other, as if letters patent for the land had, before the execution of the instrument, been issued in favour of such grantor. 20. Where satisfactory information, supported by affidavit made before a Justice of the Peace or before any other competent party, is received by the Commissioner of Crown Lands, or other officer or agent of the Crown Lands Department, that any timber or quantity of timber has been cut without authority on Crown, Clergy, School or other Public Lands, and describing where the timber can be found, the Commissioner, officer or agent, or any one of them, may seize or cause to be seized in Her Majesty's name, the timber so reported to be cut without authority, wherever it is found, and place the same under proper custody, until a decision can be had in the matter from competent authority. 23. Whenever timber is seized for non-payment of Crown dues, or for any other cause of forfeiture, or any prosecution is brought for any penalty or forfeiture under this Act, and a question arises whether the said dues have been paid on the timber, or whether the timber was cut on other than the Public Lands aforesaid, the burden of proving payment, or on what land the timber was cut, shall lie on the owner or claimant of the timber and not on the officer, who seizes the same, or the party bringing the prosecution. R. S. O. 1887, c. 28, s. 18.

Burden of proof that dues have been paid.

24. All timber seized under this Act shall be deemed to be condemned, unless the person from whom it was seized, or the owner thereof, within one month from the day of the seizure, gives notice to the seizing officer or nearest officer or agent of the Crown Lands Office, that he claims or intends to claim the same; failing notice, the officer or agent seizing shall

On default to revert to the Crown.

(2) In default of such expenditure during the first two years or during any subsequent year of the said period of seven years all rights connected with any such mining location, shall upon an Order in that behalf being made by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, upon the report of the Director of the Bureau of Mines that such expenditure has not been made, revert to, and be vested in Her Majesty, her successors and assigns, for the public uses of the Province, freed and discharged of any interest or claim of any other person or persons whatsoever. 60 V. c. 8, s. 9.

Leases of min-

35.—(1) Instead of granting any mining lands in fee simple the same may be leased or demised for a term of ten years, with the right of renewal for a further term of ten years at the same rental if the covenants and conditions have been performed and fulfilled.

(2) The patentees or those claiming under them (except patentees of mining rights hereinafter mentioned) may cut and use such trees as may be necessary for the purpose of building, fencing and fuel on the land so patented, or for any other purpose essential to the working of the mines thereon, and may also cut and dispose of all trees required to be removed in actually clearing the land for cultivation.

(3) No pine trees, except for the said necessary building, fencing and fuel, or other purpose essential to the working of the mine, shall be cut beyond the limit of such actual clearing; and all pine trees so cut and disposed of, except for the said necessary building, fencing and fuel, or other purpose aforesaid, shall be subject to the payment of the same dues as are at the time payable by the holders of licenses to cut timber or sawlogs. 55 V. c. 9, s. 17.

2. In case it is intended to clear for cultivation any portion of the lands so leased it shall be the duty of the lessee to give the holder of the timber license three months' notice in writing of his intention to clear, and the area intended to be cleared, and its position, so that such timber licensee may remove any timber on the area intended to be cleared.

3. If at the expiry of the time limited by the notice such timber shall not have been removed from the area intended to be cleared, then the lessee shall be at liberty to cut and dispose of all trees required to be removed in actually clearing for cultivation the area specified in such notice, and all trees so cut and disposed of shall be subject to the payment of the same dues as are at the time payable by the holders of licenses.

SURFACE RIGHTS AND MINING RIGHTS.

41. The ores, minerals and mining rights that have in the patents been reserved to the Crown in any land may be granted or leased to the owner of the surface rights who applies therefor, unless a patent or mining lease has been previously applied for by a person who is the first discoverer of valuable ore or mineral in or upon the premises, when such applicant shall have priority. 60 V. c. 8, s. 11.

Mining rights reserved may be sold or leased.

How compensation to owner of surface rights shall be ascertained

42.—(1) Where the surface rights have been granted, leased or located, and a patent or lease of mining rights shall thereafter be granted in respect of the same land, in the event of the parties failing to agree upon compensation for injury or damage to the surface rights either in the form of a specified interest in the mineral rights or ore or mineral, to be secured to the owner of the surface rights, or by payment or agreement to pay in money, or the giving of security, the Director of the Bureau of Mines shall order and prescribe the manner in which compensation for the damage or injury to the surface and surface rights shall be ascertained, paid or secured.

(2) For the purposes aforesaid the said Director is empowered to appoint a valuator or valuers, arbitrator or arbitrators, who shall have all the powers for the purposes for which he or they shall be appointed of an arbitrator or arbitrators under any Act of the Legislature, or he may direct that such compensation shall be ascertained by suit or action in any County or District Court. 55 V. c. 9, s. 20.

Right of entry of prospectors limited.

43. No person shall have the right of entry as prospector or explorer upon the surface rights of that portion of any lot used as a garden, orchard, vineyard, nursery, plantation or pleasure ground, or upon which crops that may be damaged by such entry are growing, or on which is situated any spring, artificial reservoir, dam or waterworks, or any dwelling-house, out-house, manufactory, public building, church or cemetery, unless with the written consent of the owner, lessee or locatee, or of the person in whom the legal estate therein is vested. 55 V. c. 9, s. 21.

the surface rights have been granted, leased or located by the Crown to another person, the licensee must proceed as provided in section 42 of this Act. 60 V. c. 8, s. 14 (1).

How staked out.

48. A mining claim shall be deemed to be marked or staked out when a discovery post of wood or iron on which is written or stamped the name of the licensee is planted upon an outcropping or other indication of ore or mineral within the boundaries of the said claim, and a post of wood or iron is planted at each of the four corners in the order following, viz.: No. I at the northeast corner, No. II at the southeast corner, No. III at the southwest corner and No. IV at the northwest corner, the number in each case to be on the side of the post turned towards the post which follows in the order in which they are named; and if one or more corners of a claim fall in any situation where the nature or shape of the ground renders the planting of a post or posts impracticable, such corner or corners may be indicated by placing at the nearest suitable point a witness post, which in that case shall contain the same marks as those prescribed herein for corner posts, together with the letters W. P. and an indication of the bearing and distance of the site of the true corner from such witness post. 60 V. c. 8, s. 14 (2).

Not more than one claim to be staked out on same vein.

49. No more than one claim shall be staked out by any individual licensee upon the same vein, lode or deposit of ore or mineral, unless such claim is distant at least three miles from the nearest known mine or discovery on the same vein or lode. 60 V. c. 8, s. 14 (3).

Dimensions of mining claims.

50—(1). A mining claim shall be a square of fifteen chains, or 990 feet, containing twenty-two and one-half acres.

How to be laid out.

(2) Each mining claim shall be laid out with boundary lines running north and south and east and west astronomically, and the measurements of each claim shall be horizontal, and the ground included in each claim shall be deemed to be bounded under the surface by lines vertical to the horizon.

Water power not to be deemed included.

(3) A valuable waterpower lying within the limits of a claim shall not be deemed as part of it for the uses of the licensee. 60 V. c. 8, s. 14 (4).

Forfeiture of claims by failure to notify Inspector and to furnish plan.

51.—(1) Every Inspector appointed under this Act shall keep a book for the recording therein of mining claims, which book shall be open to inspection by any person on payment of a fee of twenty cents; and every licensee who has marked or staked out a mining claim under this Act shall within thirty days thereafter supply to the Inspector of the division an outline sketch or plan thereof showing the discovery post and the corner posts, and the witness posts (if any), and their distances from each other in feet, together with a notice in writing setting forth the name of the licensee and the number of his license, the name (if any) of the claim and its locality as indicated by some general description or statement, the time when the same was marked or staked out, the length of the boundary lines if for any cause they are not regular and the nature of such cause, the situation of the discovery post as indicated by distance and direction from the first corner post, and the date of the record; and the Inspector shall forthwith enter the particulars of the notice in his book, and shall file the notice and sketch or plan with the records of his office;

(2) If the licensee fails to comply with the provisions of this section so far as the same relate to him, the mining claim so marked or staked out shall be deemed to be forfeited and abandoned, and all right of the licensee therein shall cease. 55 V. c. 9, s. 34; 60 V. c. 8, s. 15, and c. 3, s. 3.

52.—(1) A mining claim shall also be deemed to be forfeited and abandoned, and all right of the licensee therein shall cease, in case the mining claim remains unworked for the space of three months after the same has been first marked or staked out as aforesaid, or if the same at any time, after the expiration of three months, remains unworked for the period of fifteen days.

Forfeiture by allowing claim to remain unworked.

(2) Provided, however, that in case it is shown to the satisfaction of the Inspector of the division, either before the expiration of the respective periods aforesaid or within fifteen days thereafter, that the non-working of such claim arose from the illness of the licensee, or other reasonable cause satisfactory to the Inspector, he may extend the time during which the mining claim may remain unworked for such further period as he thinks reasonable, and may in like manner thereafter, for reasonable cause established to his satisfaction, grant further extensions of the time during which the claim may remain unworked without being liable to forfeiture; and the Inspector shall forthwith enter in the said book all such extensions of the time granted by him and shall report all such extensions.

Proviso.

(3) Provided also that in those parts of the Province lying to the north of French River, Lake Nipissing and Mattawa River, and extending thence to the western limits of the Province, no forfeiture shall be incurred by reason of the non-working of a mining claim between the first day of December and the first day of April following; but in any case actual mining operations must be carried on upon claims taken up in the said territory for at least eight months in every calendar year, saving as is provided herein. 55 V. c. 9, s. 35; 57 V. c. 16, s. 6; 60 V. c. 8, s. 16.

the time that an Order in Council directs that work on mining claims within such mining division may be suspended. 55 V. c. 9, s. 36.

License to be exhibited to Inspector on demand.

54. Every licensee shall produce and exhibit his license to the Inspector for the division, and prove to the satisfaction of the Inspector that it is in force, whenever required by him so to do. 55 V. c. 9, s. 38.

Party walls to be left between claims, and kept clear for use as roads.

55. A party wall of at least fifteen feet thick shall be left between adjoining claims on Crown lands, which party wall shall be used in common by all parties as a roadway for all purposes for which the same may be required and as a mode of access to the stream, lake or pond, where one exists; and the party wall shall not be obstructed by any person throwing soil, stone or other material thereon; and every person so obstructing the party wall shall be liable to a fine of not more than $5 and costs; and in default of payment of the fine and costs, to be imprisoned for any period not exceeding one month. 55 V. c. 9, s. 41; 60 V. c. 8, s. 18.

Person removing party wall to construct new roadway.

56. If at any time it is found necessary or expedient to remove a party wall as aforesaid, the person so removing it shall, if required so to do, construct a new roadway in no wise more difficult as an approach than the one destroyed by the removal of the party wall, under a like penalty as provided in the next preceding section; and in case of a removal of a party wall the minerals found therein shall belong to the owners of the adjoining claims, each of whom shall own the half next his claim. 55 V. c. 9, s. 42; 60 V. c. 8, s. 19.

Crown lands licensees not to damage other claims.

57. No person mining upon Crown lands shall cause damage or injury to the holder of any claim other than his own by throwing earth, clay, stones or other material upon such other claim, or by causing or allowing water which may be pumped or bailed or may flow from his own claim to flow into or upon such other claim, under a penalty of not more than $5 and costs; and in default of payment of the fine and costs, he may be imprisoned for any period not more than one month. 55 V. c. 9, s. 43.

(2) The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may in like manner from time to time declare the said Act to be no longer in force in such mining division or divisions; but this shall not prevent the Lieutenant-Governor in Council from again declaring the said Act to be in force in any such mining division or mining divisions; but no such proclamation shall have effect within the limits of any city. 55 V. c. 9, s. 47.

Where money made payable out of the Province.

89. Where the debt or money payable exceeds $100, and is by the contract of the parties made payable at a place out of the Province of Ontario, the action may be brought thereon in any Division Court, subject, however, to the place of trial being changed upon the application of one or more of the defendants as provided by the next succeeding section. (7) Upon receipt of the order and other papers by the Clerk of such last mentioned Court, he shall enter the action and proceedings in his procedure book.

(8) All the papers and proceedings in the cause thereafter shall be entitled and had and carried on as though the action had originally been entered in the said last mentioned Court.

General Provisions.

Substitutional
service.

104. Where it is made to appear to the Judge upon affidavit that reasonable efforts have been made to effect personal service of the summons upon the defendant, primary debtor or garnishee, and either that the summons has come to the knowledge of the defendant, primary debtor or garnishee, or that he wilfully evades service of the same, or has absconded, either before or after the issue of the summons, or is out of the Province of Ontario but has in Ontario an office and an agent doing business on his behalf, the Judge may, by order, grant leave to the plaintiff to serve the summons in such manner, at such place, or upon such person for the defendant, primary debtor or garnishee, as to him may seem proper, and may grant leave to the plaintiff to proceed as if personal service had been effected, subject to such conditions as the Judge may impose. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 100; 51 V. c. 10, s. 1; 52 V. c. 12, s. 10.

The Clerk shall prepare an affidavit of service of every summons issued out of his Court, or sent to him for service, stating how the same was served, the day of service, and the distance the bailiff necessarily travelled to effect service, and the affidavit shall be annexed to or indorsed on the summons; but the Judge may require the Bailiff to be sworn in his presence, and to answer such questions as may be put to him touching any service or mileage. Adding party defendant,
primary debtor or gar-nishee.

112. The following provisions shall apply to and in respect of any action brought in a Division Court:

1. The Judge may, at any time after action commenced, upon the application of either party, and upon such terms as may appear to him to be just, order that the name of any party who ought to have been joined in the action as a defendant, primary debtor or garnishee, shall be added as a party defendant, primary debtor or garnishee.

2. If it appears to the Judge, either before or at the trial of an action, that any party ought to be added as a party defendant, primary debtor or garnishee, in order that the Court may settle all rights and questions involved in the action, the Judge may order such party to be added accordingly.

Service on parties added.

3. Every person whose name is so added as a defendant, primary debtor or garnishee, shall be served with a copy of the summons, the original summons being first properly amended, and the proceedings against such added defendant, primary debtor or garnishee, shall be deemed to have been commenced from the date of the order making him a party defendant, primary debtor or garnishee; but if the application to add any party as a party defendant, primary debtor or garnishee be made at the trial, the Judge may make the order in a summary manner, and may dispense with the service of a copy of the summons if such defendant, primary debtor or garnishee, or his solicitor consents thereto, upon such terms as to costs or an adjournment of the trial, as to the Judge shall appear just. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 108 (1-3); 52 V. c. 12, s. 12.

4. Any two or more persons claiming, or being liable as co-partners may sue, or be sued in the name of the respective firms, if any. Where partners are sued in the name of their firm, the summons may be served on one or more of the partners and subject to the provisions in the next two subsections contained, such service shall be deemed good service upon the firm; but the affidavit of the service of the summons shall state the name of the partner served. Any party may, at any time before or after judgment, apply to the Judge for an order directing a statement to be furnished of the names of all the persons who are co-partners in any firm which is a party to the action by the firm named.

Execution against partners.

5. Where a judgment is against partners in the name of the firm, execution may issue in the manner following:—

(a) Against any goods of the partners;

(b) Against the goods of any person who has admitted in the notice of dispute or defence filed that he is a partner, or who has been adjudged a partner;

(c) Against any person who has been served as a partner with a copy of the summons and who has failed to appear.

6. Upon the trial of an action against a firm, if the plaintiff is desirous of obtaining a judgment against the individual partners, other than the one served with a copy of the summons, and in addition to his judgment against the firm, he may procure the addition of the remaining partners as defendants under subsections 1 and 3 of this section, and thereafter proceed to judgment against them in the action as in other cases. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 108 (4-6).

Adding partners as defendants.

Judgment by Default where Summons Specially Endorsed.

113. In actions brought in a Division Court for the recovery of any debt or money demand, where the particulars of the plaintiff's claim, with reasonable certainty and detail, are endorsed on or attached to the summons, and a copy of the summons and particulars, with a notice in the form prescribed by the General Rules or Orders relating to Division Courts from time to time in force, annexed to or endorsed on such copy has been duly served, then, unless the defendant has left with the Clerk, within eight days after the day of service (where the service is required to be ten days before the return), or within twelve days after the day of service (where the service is required to be fifteen days before the return) a notice to the effect that he disputes the claim, or some part, and how much thereof, final judgment may be entered by the Clerk on the return of such summons, or at any time within one month thereafter for the amount claimed in such particulars or so much thereof as has not been disputed, and execution may issue thereon at the instance of the plaintiff without prejudice to his right to recover for the remainder of his claim. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 109 (1); 56 V. c. 15, s. 3.

In proceedings by special summons final judgment entered by the clerk when claim in whole or in part not disputed, etc.

114—(1) The final judgment so entered may be in the form prescribed by the General Rules or Orders relating to Division Courts from time to time in force, but no such judgment shall be so entered until the summons and particulars with an affidavit of the due service of both have been filed.

Summons, particulars and affidavit to be filed.

(2) The Judge may set aside such judgment, and permit the case to be tried, on sufficient grounds shewn, on such terms as to costs and otherwise as he thinks just. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 109 (2, 3).

Judge may set aside judgment.

Judgment by default under s. 113, where final judgment not entered.

115. When due proof is made by affidavit or otherwise of the service of a special summons issued under section 113 of this Act, and of particulars of the plaintiff's claim or demand as required by the said section, and final judgment has not been entered under the provisions thereof, the Judge may if the defendant does not in person or by agent appear in open Court pursuant to and as required by the summons, give judgment against the defendant by default, without requiring proof of the plaintiff's claim or demand, and with the same consequences and effect as if the plaintiff had proved his claim or demand in open Court. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 110.

Motion for judgment.

116.—(1) In any action within the meaning of section 113 of this Act, for the recovery of the sum of $25 or upwards, the plaintiff in the action may, on an affidavit made by himself or by any other person who swears positively to the debt or cause of action, verifying the cause of action and stating that in his belief there is no defence to the action, concurrently with the service of the summons commencing the action, or at any subsequent time, serve the defendant with a notice of motion to shew cause before the Judge of the Division Court in which the action is brought why the plaintiff should not be at liberty to have final judgment entered in his favour by the clerk for the amount of the debt or money demand sought to be recovered in the action together with interest, if any, and costs. A copy of the affidavit shall accompany the notice of motion. The Judge may thereupon, unless the defendant by affidavit or otherwise satisfies the Judge that he has a good defence to the action on the merits or discloses such facts as may be deemed sufficient to entitle him to defend the action, make an order empowering the Clerk to sign final judgment accordingly. 60 V. c. 14, s. 6.

(2) The application by the plaintiff for leave to have final judgment entered in his favour under the provisions of this section shall be made on notice returnable not less than two clear days after service.

(3) The defendant may shew cause against the application by offering to bring into court the amount sought to be recovered in the action, or by affidavit. In the affidavit he shall state whether the defence he alleges goes to the whole or to part only, and if to part only then to what part of the plaintiff's claim. And the Judge may, if he thinks fit, order the defendant to attend and be examined upon oath, or to produce any books or documents, or copies of, or extracts therefrom.

(4) In case it appears that the defence set up by the defendant applies only to a part of the plaintiff's claim, or that any part of his claim is admitted to be due, the plaintiff shall be entitled to have final judgment entered forthwith for such part of his claim as the defence does not apply to or as is admitted to be due, subject to such terms, if any, as to suspending execution, or the payment of any amount levied, or any part thereof, into court by the bailiff, the taxation of costs, or otherwise, as the Judge may think fit; and the defendant may be allowed to defend as to the residue of the plaintiff's claim.

(5) If it appears to the Judge that any defendant has a good defence, or ought to be permitted to defend, and that any other defendant has not such defence, and ought not to be permitted to defend, the former may be permitted to defend, and the plaintiff shall be entitled to have final judgment entered against the latter, and may issue execution upon the judgment without prejudice to his right to proceed with his action against the former.

(6) Leave to defend may be given unconditionally, or subject to such terms as to giving security or otherwise, as the Judge may think fit. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 111 (2-6.)

117. The Judge at any time before judgment actually entered, although the time for giving the notice disputing the plaintiff's claim has expired, may, on sufficient grounds shewn, and on such terms as he thinks just, grant leave to the defendant to dispute the plaintiff's claim, in which case the requisite notice disputing the claim shall immediately be left with the Clerk, and also sent to the plaintiff, by prepaid letter through the post or otherwise. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 112.

Leave to dispute claim at any time before judgment.

118. A defendant who has filed a notice of defence in any action may, by notice in writing to the Clerk, at least six days before the sittings at which the same may be tried, withdraw such defence, and consent that judgment be entered against him for any amount, and the Clerk shall immediately notify the plaintiff thereof by mail, and thereupon the plaintiff shall be entitled to have judgment entered by the Clerk as by default for such amount, and the costs necessarily incurred. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 113.

Withdrawal of defence.

119. In any case in which the defendant, primary debtor or garnishee has given the Clerk notice that he disputes the plaintiff's claim, or any other notice of which the plaintiff should be informed before the trial, or in any case in which it has become the duty of the Clerk to give notice to any party to a cause of any defence, admission, Judge's order or other matter, of which he should be notified before the trial, such notice shall show the place and time of the sittings of the Court, at which the cause is to be heard. 52 V. c. 12 s. 25.

Requisites of notices.

Trial.

Judge may summarily dispose of cause or nonsuit plaintiff.

120. In cases in which a trial is to be had, the defendant shall, on the day named in the summons, either in person or by some person on his behalf, appear in the court to answer, and, on answer being made, the Judge shall, without further pleading or formal joinder of issue, proceed, in a summary way, to try the cause and give judgment; and in case satisfactory proof is not given to the Judge entitling either party to judgment, he may nonsuit the plaintiff; and the plaintiff may, before verdict in jury cases, and before judgment pronounced in other cases, insist on being nonsuited. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 114.

Order in which actions to be tried.

121. The Clerk shall place all actions in which the sum sought to be recovered exceeds $100 at the foot of the trial list, and the other actions on the list and business of the Court shall be disposed of before entering upon the trial of any of the first mentioned actions, unless the Judge for special reasons otherwise orders; the Judge shall, in such cases when no agreement not to appeal has been signed and filed, take down the evidence in writing, and shall leave the same with the Clerk of the Court, but in the event of an application for a new trial it shall be forwarded to the Judge by the Clerk for the purposes of such application. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 116.

Proceedings in case defendant does not appear.

123. If on the day named in the summons the defendant does not appear, or sufficiently excuse his absence, or if he neglects to answer, the Judge, on proof of due service of the summons and copy of the plaintiff's account, claim or demand, may proceed to the hearing or trial of the cause on the part of the plaintiff only, and the order, verdict or judgment thereupon shall be final and absolute, and as valid as if both parties had attended; and, except in tort or trespass, in case of the personal service of the summons and of detailed particulars of the plaintiff's claim, the Judge may, in his discretion, give judgment without further proof. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 117.

Judge may adjourn hearing of cause.

124. In case the Judge thinks it conducive to the ends of justice, he may adjourn the hearing of any cause in order to permit either party to summon witnesses or to produce further proof, or to serve or give any notice necessary to enable the party to enter more fully into his case or defence, or for any other cause which the Judge thinks reasonable, upon such conditions as to the payment of costs and admission of evidence or other equitable terms, as to him seems just. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 118.

125. Where an action is being tried by a jury, the Judge, if he thinks it expedient for the interest of justice, may postpone or adjourn the trial for such time and upon such terms, if any, as he shall think fit. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 119.

of money into Court.

129. The said money shall be paid to the plaintiff, less $1 to be paid over to the defendant for his trouble, in case the plaintiff does not further prosecute his action; and all proceedings in the action shall be stayed unless the plaintiff, within three days after the receipt of notice of the payment, signifies in writing to the Clerk of the Court his intention to proceed for his demand, notwithstanding such plea; and in such case the action shall proceed accordingly. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 123.

Amount tendered to be paid to plaintiff, etc.

the amount thereof may be paid over to the defendant out of the money so paid in with the said plea, or may be recovered from the plaintiff in the same manner as any other money payable under a judgment of the Court; but, if the decision be in favor of the plaintiff, the full amount of money paid into Court as aforesaid shall be applied to the satisfaction of his claim, and a judgment may be pronounced against the defendant for the balance due and the costs of suit according to the usual practice of the Court in other cases. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 124.

Defendant
may pay plaintiff.

132. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 135 ; 52 V. c. 12, s. 13.

When commission to take evidence of applicant, etc., may be granted.

142. No order shall be made for the issue of such commission for the taking of the evidence of the person applying therefor, or any person in his employment, unless in the opinion of the Judge a saving of expense will be caused thereby, or unless it is clearly made to appear that the person is aged, infirm, or unable from sickness to appear as a witness. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 136.

Examination of witnesses whose attendance at trial cannot be obtained.

144.—(1) An order may also be obtained for the examination of a witness who resides in a remote part of the Province, and at a great distance from the place of trial, if it be clearly made to appear that his attendance cannot be procured, or that the expense of his attendance would be out of proportion to the amount involved in the action, or would be so great that the party desiring his attendance should not, under the circumstances, be required to incur the same; and the proceedings thereon, and the order as to costs, shall be the same as in the case of an order in the next preceding section mentioned.

(2) Any person appointed to take an examination under this or the next preceding section shall have authority to administer an oath to the person to be examined. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 138.

Judge may receive in evidence plaintiff's or defendant's books of account. R. S. O. 1887, c. 51, s. 142; 60 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Execution not to be postponed for more than 50 days.

153. Except in cases where a new trial is granted, the issue of execution shall not be postponed for more than fifty days from service of the summons without the consent of the party entitled to the same, but in case it at any time appears to the satisfaction of the Judge, by affidavit, affirmation or otherwise, that a defendant is unable, from sickness or other sufficient cause, to pay and discharge the debt or damages recovered against him, or any instalment thereof, ordered to be paid as aforesaid, the Judge may suspend or stay any judgment, order or execution given, made or issued in the action, for such time and on such terms as he thinks fit, and so from time to time until it appears by the like proof that the temporary cause of disability has ceased.
